No. 5—St. Louis, 4 P. M.—Ir. 8:05 P. M.
No. 10—Ir. 8:05 P. M.—St. Louis, 9:05 A. M.
The Arcadia Accommodation arrives and departs from Union Street Depot, 15 daily except Sunday, and carries express matter.

Something new at Jud Chambers' Gallery. Go and see it.

The trains on the I. M. R. R. are again all running "on time."

The Methodist people intend giving a festival a week from next Thursday.

A light frost whitened the earth Tuesday morning, but it damaged nothing.

They have struck a fine vein of ore in the main heading of tunnel No. 3 on Pilot Knob.

WANTED—A Second Hand Spinning Wheel, in good order. Apply at the Arcadia House.

Seaside Libraries of all kinds at Jud Chambers'. You can also get any Book, piece of Music, or Periodical, at his stand.

MARRIED—At Judge Dinger's office, Tuesday, May 16, 1882, by the Judge, Mr. W. M. UPTON to Miss LIZZIE CLIFTON—all of Iron county, Mo.

Do our country friends know that nitching horses to any shade-tree within the limits of Ironton is forbidden by ordinance, and that it may incur a fine of twenty-five dollars?

Postage stamps received in payment for the REGISTER, is to say, where a subscriber is out of reach of a money-order office, or it is inconvenient for him to come to the office in person.

One of the attaches of this office desires to return thanks to Mr. Kipp Russell for a beautiful bouquet. The bouquet consisted of the finest flowers, and the arrangement would have done credit to a florist.

Ransom Merrill, a colored cavalier, gay and festive, was arrested on the 8th inst., taken before His Honor, Judge Dinger, and fined one dollar and trimmings, for carrying concealed weapons. Ransom isn't so Merrill disposed as he was wont to be.

Sewing Machine Needles, for nearly all kinds of machines, can be had at Mr. Donaldson's jewelry shop; and Needles have been sold there for the last ten years. Dr. Scott's Electric Brush can be had at the same place. MRS. S. M. DONALDSON.

L. D. Carle, of Bellevue, sends us a sample of wool clipped from his sheep this spring. He desires us to place it beside the samples now in this office, so that people may see Bellevue is not behind in the wool-producing business. The sample is certainly very fine, and measures 24 inches in length.

Some of these fine days a child will be run over and killed or maimed for life by horses running at large through the streets of Ironton. Then the City Council will meet and pass an ordinance prohibiting the running at large of horses and mules within the corporate limits. But wouldn't it be better to pass the ordinance first and save the child?

The Festival last Thursday and Friday evenings was very successful. The net proceeds were nearly $70, and St. Paul's Church doesn't owe a cent to anybody—thanks to the indefatigable labors of its lady members. A fine worsted quilt, the handwork of the late Grandma Myers, realized $21.50. It was voted to the luckiest individual in the room. Ye editor took it in, of course.

MARRIED—At the residence of John F. T. Edwards, Esq., the bride's father, in Ironton, Mo., on Thursday evening, May 11, 1882, Mr. JOSEPH WALKER, of Piedmont, to Miss MARY ANN EDWARDS, the ceremony being performed by Rev. A. W. Wright, of the Presbyterian Church at Ironton.

The best wishes of the REGISTER go with the new-made husband and wife, who will make Piedmont their future home.

A mail-route has been established between Ironton and Brunot, by way of Rocky Glade, Marble Creek and Crane Pond, with a side supply from Marble Creek to French Mills. The mail will be carried once a week, commencing last Tuesday. The contract for the present year has been awarded to Mr. Brewington, of Brunot. The time of starting from Ironton will probably be changed from Tuesday to Thursday.

Henry Caldwell, a colored denizen of Zion's Hill, "a wee bit aged" in his every-day walk, and at times out-and-out crazy, was arrested by Marshal Patton last Saturday and conducted to the "jug." Henry had one of his "spells" Friday and Saturday, and had threatened to kill his mother, his children and himself. He was fined for carrying concealed weapons, and is now working out his fine on the streets of the City of Ironton.

Ed. Register—In a paper called the "Stirrup," edited by Prof. Jackson, I was represented as being in the love-making profession. To correct any false impression which may exist in the minds of the public, I will simply state that some other Lopez was meant, as the undersigned is still holding forth at the St. Louis Variety Store, and selling suits for $5.00 that are worth $10.00.

Yours respectfully, GEO. LOPEZ.

DEED—At the residence of his father, Daniel Taylor, Ironton, Mo., May 16th, 1882, of typhoid-malarial fever, GRANT D. TAYLOR, aged 16 years, 9 months.

Deceased was a boy of unusual promise, generous and kind to all, honest and true in everything. The many friends who had become attached to him by an acquaintance with his good qualities, had for weeks noted the progress of the dreadful disease, hoping often against hope that he might be restored to health, but such was not to be. The family in their sad bereavement have the kindly sympathy of the entire community.

The funeral will take place to-morrow (Thursday) morning. Further notice will be given.

The attention of those in authority over the streets and sidewalks of our city is directed to the sidewalk between Carter's livery stable and the depot. In the middle of the foot-path there are three or four stakes, projecting several inches above the surface—just high enough to escape ordinary observation and break the neck of some unfortunate pedestrian. It is a shame they were not taken out months ago, and we trust this gentle reminder will be sufficient to "remove" them forever from the pathway of civilization.

We understand that Mr. Emmet Hiney is about to open a class in Caledonia for drawing and painting. A delegation of ladies came from there and having seen his work, were pleased to solicit his aid in instructing their daughters in the art he loves and to which his father before him devoted his life. He begins operations there after the Exhibition to come off at the Caledonia College in the first week in June. He will not take up his residence in that pretty town, but continue to reside among us in our Valley and to adorn his mother's home and his father's studio with his works.

Mr. C. Oesterle, of Middlebrook, is general agent for Fink's Family Medicines. Among these is Fink's Magic Oil, which cures Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Headache, etc. For Neuralgia or Headache it is infallible, curing the worst cases of the latter in five minutes. We know this to be the fact by personal experience. This most excellent remedy is purely vegetable; compounded according to the best Medical skill, and is designed for both internal and external use; is entirely safe in all cases, and taken in any quantities. It has been well tested by all classes of people, for several years, and everybody concedes that it is a Medicine of unrivaled merit. Your money will be promptly refunded if satisfaction is not given by the medicine.

All ye good people of Yron county and vicinity who wish to frame Kromos, and so forth, go to ye IRONTON DRUGGE ESTABLISHMENT, two doors south of ye new Tin-Type Gallery and across the way from the new Musical Academy.

Ye young manne and hys goodde wife keep a full line of Frames, Drugges, Candles, and so forth; also an article called "Boston Star Polish," which maketh old furniture shine as new. Also ye following articles: Face Powders, Brushes, French Harps (a wind instrument), Violin Strings, Inks, Papers (for ye ladies to write their beaux on), Pens (to write ye foregoing with), Cigars, pure Wines and "Schnapps," Paints, Oils, Varnishes, Lamp Globes, and a numerous quantity of everything.

The suit of Kate McDonough and husband, of St. Louis, against William S. Relfe, former superintendent of the Insurance Department, was taken up for trial last Monday in Judge Thayer's court. The petition alleges that on the 29th of October defendant was the owner of a certain dog, known to him to be of a vicious and mischievous disposition, and accustomed to attack and bite mankind. That he wrongfully and negligently suffered said dog to go at large, and that while at large on the corner of Missouri and Mississippi avenues, at the date mentioned, the dog attacked and bit plaintiff, inflicting injuries, for which she claims $3000 damages. After the plaintiff's side of the case was heard the court gave instructions that under the proofs and pleadings the plaintiff could not recover, and a nonsuit was taken.

PERSONAL.—Miss Ruth May, of Butler county, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Geo. H. Crumb, of this city, left last Saturday for her home, much to the regret of her many friends.

Miss Jennie Rudy, of Farmington, who has been visiting friends and relatives at this place, left for her home Monday. Miss Jennie is a very pleasant and amiable young lady, and won many friends while here.

Mrs. Mattie Fairchild left on Wednesday morning for Fredericktown on a visit to her many friends and relatives at that place. Mrs. Sallie Fairchild accompanied her as far as Bismarck.

Miss Lou Gideon left Saturday for Poplar Bluff. We understand that Miss Lou goes to take charge of a school near the Bluff. As this is her first attempt, we wish her unlimited success.

Miss Mamie Zwart returned Monday from her visit to St. Louis.

Miss Nettie Collins and her brother Willie, of Des Arc, were in town last week.

Dr. Bernard H. Zwart, of Kansas City, arrived in town Monday on a visit to parents and friends.

Mr. Tom Moore was in town again, Monday. Tom's Ironton friends always give him a hearty welcome.

Mr. Ashton R. Poyninghams paid Ironton a visit last Saturday.

Mr. Harry Noel, of Shapleigh & Co., St. Louis paid our merchants a visit last week.

Dr. Lee M. Pettit, of Piedmont, was in town last week visiting Judge and Mrs. J. F. T. Edwards.

Arrivals at the Arcadia House for week ending May 14th: W. G. Harkness, J. P. Foster, Robert P. Crow, J. J. W. Potter, Frank D. Storer, Marshal S. Snow, Mrs. Snow, Miss Wall, Miss Carr, Halsey C. Ives, Wm. B. Potter, T. A. Robinson, A. R. Poyninghams, Miss Mary Soudard, and Masters Volly and Soudard Turner, St. Louis; W. J. Crain, De Soto; Jas. Anderson and Jas. H. Connelly, Kansas City; J. T. Davis, Greenville, J. D. Boone, Fort Smith, Ark.

For the REGISTER

Can we glad refined gold?
Can Gould be otherwise than guilty?
Can he be heart from Avarice
Be free from guilt as grass from lice?
Or can his heart be else than filthy?
Oh, fools or FREEMEN, now's your time
To save your cherished Liberty;
To save your country from the crime
Of losing prestige so sublime?
Of honoring Washington, whose time
Was given that we should e'er be free!
EMETIC.

KANSAS CITY, June 4, 1881.
LEIS CHEMICAL MAN'G CO., Lawrence, Kan. I take pleasure in saying to you that very many of my friends have used Leis' Dandelion Tonic, and always with good effect. The idea that its sale or use is a violation of the prohibition law of Kansas is exceedingly foolish, as it is in no sense intoxicating, but entirely medicinal.
D. SHELTON, Supt., Bismarck Grove.

In spite of the inclement weather, on Friday a few of the faithful members of the Clonian gathered around the table in Mrs. Delano's pleasant sitting-room and continued the discussion of early Scottish and English history. For the benefit of absent members a full list of questions to be answered next evening is here given:
Name the five periods of English history; the five lines; the five houses; length of each period; king beginning and closing each line; religion of the first period; some of the important characters of the second.

Who, in the time of Charles II., gave to the Writ of Habeas Corpus an efficiency which the lawyers who had been at work at it hitherto failed to secure? How is it that it seems a certain fact that the Writ was passed through Parliament at the time above mentioned by means of "a foolish jest and a shameless falsehood?"

What was the origin of guilds? What maxim is illustrated by the influence of towns and guilds upon this period? What is necessary to constitute a city in England—or why is Birmingham, with 300,000 inhabitants, a town, while Lechfield, with 7,000, is a city?

When did Ma-beth reign? How long? What king of England favored the cause of Malcolm, son of Duncan?

In addition to these, there will be review questions on the reign of Ed. II. The following topics were assigned members present: Wickliffe, Mrs. Markham; The History of the Christian Church to this Period, Mrs. Fairchild; First Portion of Edward the Third's Reign, Miss Hattie Edgar; Second, Miss Nettie Edgar; Third, Mrs. Moser; Fourth, Mr. Lindsay.

That the class might not be found ignorant of things nearer home, they were requested, by the leader, to inform themselves in regard to the early history of our beautiful Arcadia Valley, particularly the meaning and application of the name. REPORTER.

Crops in the Southeast.

A week since we took a trip of ten miles into the country south of Ironton, and were cheered by the appearance of crops of all kinds. Wheat never looked better at this season of the year. Corn was up and growing at about the rate of two inches in twenty-four hours. Meadows were in splendid condition. Apples and peaches promise to be plentiful, notwithstanding the late frosts, while if nothing untoward occurs, grapes and smaller fruits will be abundant.

The following compilation of crops in the Southeast we take from the New Madrid Record:

Perryville Sun, 5th inst., says: "Chinch-bugs are growing numerously in most sections of Perry county. It is concluded that on account of the cold weather this spring a great deal of corn ground will have to be replanted." The Union of same date: "Army worms and chinch-bugs are doing some mischief in this county. A hail storm, doing some damage to crops, visited this county last week. So far the caterpillars are doing no harm. Quite a heavy frost was visible Monday morning, which is believed to have injured the fruit crop and proved no benefit to the growing wheat now in bloom."

Bloomfield Indicator, of the 6th, says nothing about army worms or crop prospects. Dexter Enterprise-Messenger: "Caterpillars are as thick in Soddard county as fleas on a dog's back."

Marble Hill Reflector, 6th inst., says: "Army worms, in vast numbers, have invaded Bollinger county. The hail is said to have damaged wheat in some portions of the county. Our farmers say the prospect for good crops was never better than at this time."

The Malden Clipper, of the 5th inst., says the farmers of Dunklin county are complaining of the damage done by cut-worms, but does not mention army worms. The crops are reported to be looking as well as could be expected considering the cold weather.

The Charleston Enterprise, of last Saturday, says: "Army worms are killing the wheat and damaging the corn in Mississippi county." A full account of the army worms has been taken possession of A. C. Bogard's wheat field and about destroyed it. Mr. Bogard informs that he will have to plow up his field of wheat and plant it in corn.

The Jackson Cash-Book has information that a severe hail storm occurred in the vicinity of Kuerreville, in Cape county, doing great damage to the fruit crop and garden vegetables; hailstones were picked up which measured five inches in circumference. A. J. Bean has twenty acres of wheat which he expects to yield 35 to 40 bushels—if not injured by the chinch-bugs and army worms. The Doniphan News, of the 4th inst., says: "From what we hear the farmers of Ripley county say there will be a much larger yield of wheat and corn than ever before." "Cut-worms are doing considerable damage to gardens."

The Farmington Times, of 27th ult., says: "Wheat and oats look fine. Peaches damaged by late frost." Same paper, of date 4th inst., says: "The fruit prospects have declined somewhat. The fruit prospects have declined somewhat and the depreciations they may commit are the current topics of conversations just now. Weather too cool and dry for crops to thrive well. There is complaint that moles are taking the corn before it comes up."

The Potosi Independent, of the 4th inst., says: "Owing to the difficulty in getting good seed corn many of the Washington county farmers will have to plant their corn the second time."

Benton Record, of last Saturday: "Army worms are playing havoc with the wheat fields in Richwoods. The fruit crop is safe, so far."

The Benton Express says: "Some of our farmers report that army worms and chinch bugs are damaging their wheat." Colman's World, of a late date, says the prospect for a good wheat crop in Missouri was never better.
